

Hale's Spring Seasonal

IRISH STYLE

NUT BROWN ALE

Style: Brown Ale

Taste: Nut-brown in color, Hale's Spring Seasonal is made in the tradition of Irish mild ales. This "session beer" is firmly satisfying, nicely balanced, with a distinct, malty character.

Serving Suggestions: An ideal accompaniment with traditional pub style fare, excellent with fish & chips. Also great when served with grilled or roasted meats & vegetables.

History: Originally brewed as Irish Ale in 1986, this beer has firmly established itself as a Spring favorite in Northwest restaurants and ale houses.

Point of Sale: One-fold, pop-up table tents

Ingredients: Pale Malted barley, Crystal, Black & Chocolate Malts, Cluster & Mt. Hood hops, yeast and water.

Original Gravity: 1.048
